

Top 5 Spots in Boston for Eyelash Extensions

BY KELLIE SPEED | HAUTE 5 | MARCH 15, 2016

If you don't have time to wait for your lashes to grow (even with a little help from products that expedite lash growth like Skin Research Laboratories' neuLASH lash enhancing serum), don't fret. There are several places in Boston that will make you look like a celebrity after just one quick visit. Here's a look at the five best places for lash extensions in Boston.

1 Prettyology

Prettyology

Owner Julie Michaud takes beauty to a new level at her Newbury Street salon strategically placing each lash to enhance your eyes. It takes a couple of hours to get them on but once they have been applied, you won't believe the difference in your appearance. You'll have to come back every few weeks for touch-ups as your own lashes continue to grow, but there is nothing quite like the "dramatic look" that will leave you looking (and feeling) like a superstar.

2 Lash L'Amour

Lash L'Amour

Located right up the street from Prettyology is Lash L'Amour. Each set of lashes here is different as they are customized to meet your individual profile. Each set is designed to enhance the shape of your eye to give you a natural look while lengthening your lashes. They offer a variety of thicknesses, lengths and curls with up to 100 lashes applied to each eye.

3 Elite Lash Studio

Elite Lash Studio

Whether you need some long lashes for that special night out on the town or are just looking to spice up your everyday look, Elite Lash Studio's professionals will take you to glam in the blink of an eye. Try the 3D/6D Russian Volume dramatic lashes for a full look. These lashes are full, lush, dark and some of the longest you will find in town. Three to six thin eyelash extensions are added to your natural lash for the ultimate in length and take three hours to apply.

4 Eyestarr

Eystarr

Andrea Starr knows what it takes to make you look like a star. The licensed lash extension expert offers everything you need to bat your baby blues. From custom lash tinting and semi permanent lash lift curling to outer edge lash flare extensions and full set applications, she will find the look that is right for you. You will leave this Newbury Street boutique feeling beautiful and confident.

5 Viyada Thai Spa

Viyada Thai Spa

There is something relaxing about walking into a spa. You can almost feel the stress melt away the moment you walk through the door. That's just how we feel at Viyada Thai Spa where Novalash Eyelash Extensions are the pick of the lash collection. A full set, which is bonded to your natural lashes, takes an hour and a half to apply, one of the shortest in town, and these luxe extensions will last up to six weeks.
